Ann was married to William Dawson of Troy, NY and then to Joseph Pyzik of Citrus Springs, FL. Ann is survived by a step-son, Joseph Pyzik, Jr. and wife, Melissa and children, Ellen, Joseph and Julia of Winter Garden, FL. She was preceded in death by her parents, one sister, Mary Lee Browngard and her husbands. As a Navy wife, Ann moved with her family many times and lived from coast to coast in the United States. She made friends everywhere she went throughout her life and was active in many organizations. She loved to cook, tend her flowers and a small vegetable garden, always sharing a portion of each. She remained loyal to long time friends, especially her childhood friend, Marjorie Pavia of San Bernadino, CA. Ann was civic minded and worked with the Louisiana Historical Preservation when it began. She worked tirelessly raising funds for early projects and served as an officer. Active with the Garden Club, Ann was disturbed over vandalism to trees the club had planted. She soon was instrumental in getting the Crime Stopper program started in Pike County and served as the first Secretary for County organization. The Pike County Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution was honored to have Ann for a member. She had served as Chapter Regent and was a loyal supporter of all projects. She raised a substantial amount for the restoration of the entrance to Riverview Cemetery in Louisiana. Memorials may be given to the Pike County Home Health and Hospice in care of Collier Funeral Homes, Inc., 117 Barnard Dr., Louisiana, M0 63353.

Ann lived across the road at SkyWay Farm on Hwy 'W' back in the 1980,s. My husband, children and I would visit with her and fish in the big lake. She sure was an excellent cook. She had our entire family over for a lobster cookout. We could never compare to her cooking 'tho we tried. She made a cake that was absolutely scrumptious.
Ann was a great mentor as well as a friend. Our kids helped us move her to Louisiana, MO. We still have plants she started for us and a plaque she gave us Christmas 1985 that we will always treasure, which read;
"It's great knowing someone who's friendly and nice,
Someone who'd help you without thinking twice,
Someone who's always a pleasure to see,
Who's everything special a good friend should be."
That actually described Ann quite well!
She was an absolute pleasure to know.
