“ Parties, holidays, special occasions...granny was always there. She will always be remembered and terribly missed. Her obituary said she loved shopping and cleaning her house which is a true statement but she loved so much more. She loved her son and grand daughters. She loved all the new babies (her great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren). Even in her confused final months she always asked about her family. They were all there somewhere in her memory. My grandma LOVED bingo and her Trolls. If you played bingo with her you had to pay attention or she would be marking your papers for you even though she had 4 of her own. She loved yard sales. Having yard sales or just going to them, it didn't matter. We ALL received lots of interesting things from her every time we saw her. Granny also loved cooking and anyone who entered her home had better be prepared to eat. If she knew you were coming she always had something waiting even if we told her we were eating before we came. I could go on and on because she loved so much. She left us with so many great memories and traditions. She was such a kind and giving person and she will live on in the lives of so many people who knew her. ?

“ *Dear, sweet, Aunt Alma left a life full of great memories for us to cherish and hold onto forever. She had such a zest for life that happiness seemed somewhat contagious when you were with her. It is so difficult to let go of this wonderful lady, but as the tears flow let us find some comfort knowing she has been welcomed with open arms by those who passed before her, especially Uncle Clark, who left us 29 years ago. Although a long life is a great blessing, it doesn't make letting go any easier. So, please accept our deepest and sincerest sympathies in your loss, as we grieve as well. Another angel has entered heaven.....much love Aunt Alma.

“ Grandma Pointer always had little nuggets of wisdom to share. I remember once Theresa and I were making dinner and Granny came into the room as Theresa was mashing the potatoes in the mixer. She told us, "Now don't you girls stick your fingers in those beaters while they're moving or you'll cut them off!"

She was a joy and I love her so much. She was the kind of grandma everyone wants. I will cherish all of the memories I have of her growing up; from the unexpected things she said that still make me laugh to the hot chocolate she had for us after we came in from sledding.

Rest in peace, Granny, until we meet again.... <3

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*
