“ Aunt Alta was more than my Aunt, she was my friend, my buddy. We spent so many hours together during the years I lived there. My Dad, Skete Hoaglin had stories that were so funny about growing up in the bottoms and how he terrorized his sisters, but he loved them so much, his arms are full now. She is with her beloved sisters and her daughter, Dixie. I surprised her for her 93rd birthday in August and was able to take her to see our cousins in Illinois. Love you Auntie, the world will be lonelier without you but I rejoice in the fact you are with all your loved ones. Joyce Hoaglin Horyczun
