

Bradyn A. Jensen

October 21, 2008 - August 5, 2025

With broken hearts and cherished memories, we announce the passing of Bradyn Ann Jensen, age 16, who left this world far too soon on August 5, 2025.

Born on October 21, 2008, Bradyn brought light, laughter, and joy into the lives of everyone she met. Her vibrant personality, infectious smile, and boundless energy made her a bright spot in every room she entered. She had a deep love for music, dancing, and creating fun TikToks with her friends and family — always the one to get people moving and laughing. Bradyn was so proud to have made the high school cheerleading team — a reflection of her spirited nature and dedication.

Bradyn is deeply loved and will be forever missed by her mother, Chelsi LaRue, father, Alex Jensen, step-parents Jimmie Glear and Emily Jensen. She is also survived by her siblings: Bailee Jensen, Fynnley Gruenefeld, Owen, and Haley Jensen. Her grandparents — Becky LaRue, Steven LaRue, Mindy Jensen, and Scott Hipes — mourn the loss of their precious daughter and granddaughter and will carry her memory with them always.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Bradyn's life during a visitation on Monday, August 11, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM with funeral service following at 1:00 PM at the Family Resource Center at Edgewood, MO. The Rev. Rod Ohmes will officiate. A burial service will follow at Greenwood Cemetery in Clarksville, Missouri.

Bradyn's light was bright, her time was short, but her impact will be lasting. She was deeply loved, and her spirit will continue to dance in our hearts forever.

“ Bradyn, you were always a fun person to hang with at school and make those TikTok's with. Even though I didn't know you long it felt like I've known you forever. You changed so many people's lives. You will be missed by so many. Prayers sent to her family and friends.
