“ I love you dad crazy when you live so far apart from each other but yet are so much alike. I love you and I hope you know that. I wish you weren't gone so we could have shared more times together with you and my brothers doing things we liked that others don't like I wish we were fishing together today or hunting or doing something fun together outside but I promise to always do my best at everything and keep making you proud. Thank you dad for no matter how far apart I ever lived for coming to my games and being proud that I was your son. Dad you never one time came to my soccer games, baseball games or basketball games and ever told me I did bad even when I did which wasn't much since I was your son and all three of us are so awesome like our dad. I know you always did want us to come to more but I always had my sports then you got sick but still would come to my stuff when you could sad thank you for coming even when you were really sick. I will continue to make you laugh by doing stupid things with my brothers to make you laugh at us and I will always do my best to keep making you proud about my grades and making good choices. Now I know dad you will always be at all my stuff that it's not too far! Dad you were a good dad and we all had a good role model thanks for being there when you could I promise we will never ever forget you and I promise to do better at hanging out with my brothers like you wanted me to and we know there is no other place you will be then watching over us and keeping us safe which might be hard at times cause at times I know I have some of you in me which means I do crazy things that scare mom but make you laugh and say that's my boy! So keep us safe as our angel CJ you always said was your calm one that you didn't have to worry a lot about CJ doing crazy things but you said me and Josh have your wild side at times and gave you a run for your money and you know that is not changing so watch us and know we will miss you. Love ya dad I'm sorry d as I really am for not being there to help take care of you I'm really really sorry
