“ Shelley and boys, we're so sorry and saddened about the heartbreaking news of your loss of Chris. He was one in a million, a truly nice guy with an infectious smile and such a great sense of humor. His love for his family was always evident in everything he said and did. Our family has so many great memories of him...on stage dancing with Shelley, with the boys at our karate studio, and listening to him sing and crack jokes as he cooked at the diner...these are just a few of the many things we've been remembering about Chris these last several days. Our hearts go out to you, and we pray God's comfort around you all as you travel through this time of sorrow. Please know you're in our constant thoughts and prayers.

*Much Love,
The Taylor Family*

“ I am shocked to see the news of Chris' passing. His mother, Florine, was my best friend growing up in Lake Wales, Florida. I knew all of the boys, Brian, Chris and Brad, as they grew up in Kissimmee. Chris was not only the cutest little toehead when a baby but was also a kind, gentle man who took life seriously, loving his family and taking on additional responsibilities over the years. He will be sorely missed by all. I send my condolences to the family with prayers for strength and peace during this time of grief. My love to Shelley and the boys.

In Christ's Love,
Barbara Diederich
