“ I know this is a hard time for all of us who knew Uncle Clarence, but I for one have a lot of good memories. As we get older we tend to go to our mind to review the past, to see what the miles that seperate us can not show us. I send my regards to the one's he has left behind. It leaves a large hole where there was love and laughter. Know that my thoughts are with all of you at this sad passing.
