“ I am writting this for my father: Andre "Skinny" Banks. "Clyde" as my dad called him was a very good friend to my dad. I met him years ago when dad and Uncle Clyde picked me up one summer in Missouri. We made several stops that summer; we went to a house in St Louis and spent the night, i remember a really nice lady there. I will never forget us going to his mother's house in Mexico Mo and we spend the night. Then we went over to Davenport and Rock Island. In Davenport is where i met Nicki and we have became life long friends/cousins. I remember wanting to stay longer. My dad was very sadden and will always cherish there friendship. We are praying for your family. May God Bless You. He was a good man.
