“ There are way too many good memories to post them all, but the one I cherish the most is when I cut my eye (I think I was 5) you said you need to go to mom. I had no idea that my eye was cut so I said no (because I just thought it was a ploy so you could get to the swing first). When mom came out screaming, you ran off and when mom found you so we could go get dad to go the hospital she said you were praying that I was going to be ok. You were ALWAYS a GREAT big brother and I'm going to miss you terribly.

“ Where do I even begin. So many days and nights with your girls and Bub terrorizing you, Aunt Gina, and my mom. Not to mention terrorizing each other. A lot of great memories that will stay with me. I'm proud to call you Uncle and I'll miss you.

We've been so blessed to have you as our father and you blessed me with so many brothers and sisters I could never thank the Lord enough for how blessed we are.
