“ Working with Dan was always interesting. I had come to consider Dan one of my best friends, even though we didn't get to spend a lot of time hanging out because of the distance. We talked atleast once a week most of the time. To his son Jacob and father Wes, you are in our thoughts at this time. Take comfort in know that Dan had many friends that are missing him right now and that he was a great man and friend. It has been a great honor in getting to know him.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your son, and father. Many times things like this happen and it is unexplained and does not make sense. However the only way it can be understood is by consulting to GOD'S word the bible where it tells us at JOHN 5:28,29, Jesus says"DO not marvel at this the hour will come when all in the grave will hear my voice and come out. So please continue to view it for lasting comfort.
