“ My whole family just loved Deama. She and Richard were are neighbors for years in louisiana. My son John Sisson and I went to visit Richard and Deama on November 1, last thursday. Such lovely, lovely friends. I told Richard I have known for some time I had missed a golden opportunity when I hadn't gone across the street and just listen and just let Deama tell me about God and the Bible. She was such a wonderful Christian always seeing the best in people and talking about her faith in God. She will be missed by all of us who new her. My husband Ron was upset he was out of state on our last visit. Love to Richard and all her wonderful family.

“ My condolences to the family and may I share some word of comfort because life can be so overwhelming at this time. The pain, the grief, and the feeling of hopelessness can be unbearable. May you find comfort in family and friends but most of all thru our God Jehovah, whose eyes and ears are toward our supplication.
