“ Many years ago, I worked in the STL area while living in Louisiana. So what did I see often on the road... an orange van with a tiger painted on the tire wheel cover. It would be months later when a friend told me who owned the van. It became his second home, after his divorce and living with his mom. One day he offered me a ride home from some function and I could not help but notice this huge ice chest filled with beer! I was shocked... yep he did drink and drive.... Over months I reminded him that he could kill someone or himself...over time the chest contained soda and no beer...I was proud of his new way of life!

Anyone who knew Dennis knew his friendship, love and joy of life. His spirit will live on.

And to Jan and the girls.... I am sure that there will be a huge void in your life without Dennis, so what you do..... gather as many memories possible and allow them to fill the void. In time the void will disappear and what will remain...the great memories.

I believe that Ruth and Mildred were at heaven's gate to greet Dennis and he is enjoying the warmth and love of his family above.

Blessings to all who are feeling grief, allow the grief to help you grow and prevail!

“ You have our deepest sympathies in the loss of your dad. But only the Lord knows when it is our time to go and we have no choice but to beckon to His call. He will be remembered with fondness and I am sure he is in a much better place now. May his soul and all of the faithfull departed rest in peace. He and the family are remembered in our prayers

“ Papa Denny was not only my neighbor, but my friend. We went on float trips together and he and Jan helped Jackson and I raise our boys. They were always there for us, as we will be for Jan. He loved his family, and his friends and he will be missed by us all. I for one will miss his waves from the front porch each morning as I drive off to work. Rest In Peace and my prayers are with your family as they struggle to move forward.

“ I will remember Denny as a very fast mover..when he dated my sister he didn't want me around much but once in awhile he gave me a ride to town. He loved his daughters as well as all of his family. I remember he always treated his mom and dad with the utmost respect. Denny you were a great family man, loving father and I know there will now be a big void in their lives. Rest in Peace Denny. You will be missed..
