“ The Havner kids enjoyed many good memories growing up in the Missouri hills as her neighbor. Loved riding in the woods, picking raspberries in the pastures and ice skating on the pond in her backyard. I'm sorry for your loss. Sonya (Havner) Atkins

“ Hello Bob, Laura, Ruth Ann and Robert. You have our deepest sympathy, We are so sorry you have lost such a wonderful Wife, Mother, Grand Mother and Great Grandmother. She was certainly a loveable person with so much laughter. We are so sorry for not being better neighbors. Maurice came home around 3:00 yesterday after getting new tires on the car, Jim and family were here at the time, he just did not want to get back out into the bad weather after being out earlier. The snow stopped us from coming. Hoping to see you at the church this morning, we will see what happens. We are sending many hugs for each of you and are sure her soul is up in Heaven with our Almighty God. She had her suffering here on earth. With all our condolences and prayers, your old neighbors, Maurice & Ann Illy with love to each of you.
