I am saddened by Ellen's passing for the family because I know she will be missed. I also feel joyous for her because she is in the arms of our Saviour. We talked about this several times and she was not afraid of death knowing she was saved. I will really miss seeing her as my patient. She was also my friend. I can't be there today but thinking of you all.

“ Please accept my condolence on the loss of your dear loved one. May fond memories and thoughts of cherish times bring warmth to your hearts. Take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Father will soon remove death and tears

Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

Joshua 23:14....you well know with all your heart and with all your soul that not word out of all the good promises that Jehovah you God has spoken to you has failed. They have all come true for you. Not one word of them has failed.
