“ He was my oldest brother in our family. He was the best big brother I could ever ask for. There was 8 of us. I had five brothers and two sisters. We were a very close family. We may have not had a big home but it was filled with love. The table had loads of food on it. Our door was always open to all. Our parents brought us up to always do the right thing the best we could. To accept people as they were and always treat them as family. Just be a good ole guy. That's my brother Jr.! He would give his shirt off his back to help someone with the hope that they would help themselves. My brother will be missed by many. I love you always brother❤️
