“ Aunt Franny what do I say about a very special Aunt / Big sister she was always there for me to guide me along and never shut me out she was and still will always be in my heart. Here is memory that we always laughed about as young kids we had a white pony. My brother and her were on it and it would not move I grabbed a stick and smacked it's butt and it took off bucking and running. We were young then and I was so up to no good I will forever miss her and love her. Your eldest niece Penny

“ Blessed to have you as an Aunt. I'll forever remember how much fun it was to spend nights with you. You let us play in the rain and play in mud puddles! I'll never forget my first time and only time (🤪 😊) trying mountain oysters I'll never forget the time all us kids thought a pole was a scary person watching us. I Love you Beth, Rachel, and Roger ❤️🙏
