“ My memory of Gary is when we did not agree on something...we were both so stubborn on the subject...we had to agree to disagree! He was such a fine man and I know the best husband and father that he could be. Sandy let the good memories fill the tremendous void that you must be feeling. The good memories will comfort and protect you. Also remember that many people have never experienced the fruitful marriage that you two created, so appreciate the even more that life that you had...let all of the life experiences that you had with Gary give you the power and joy to carry on into a new life passage. God bless~Metha
