“ My name is John Jeans & I want to extend my condolence & sympathy to Bernie's family.

We worked together at Hercules from 1959 to 1964, when I moved to Calif. I want to tell a funny story about Bernie's work-mate, James Welch, & myself. We started a hay hauling operation in the evenings, after we got off work around 4:00 pm. It only took 1 job for Bernie & James to find out how out-of-shape they both were, by working in the lab at Hercules. They both ended up sitting aside & WATCHING me finish unloading the truck & stacking the hay in the barn all by myself. We all had a good laugh about this venture, & didn't talk about it to anyone else we knew. Hopefully he told some of his family about this so that they will know it's a TRUE story. GOD BLESS...John.
