“ Jeanie and Family

Susan and I are so sorry for your loss. The older I get the more I think of the wonderful times of my youth. Greg, Phil, Jack, Sydney, David and Stephen to mention a few are in my thoughts daily, and the memories of the things we did and how close we were at one time. I am sorry that we have to grow apart as we get older, that's life. I saw Greg at Ronnie's visitation and am so glad I did. Jeanie seek JESUS he is all you and your family need. He will give you peace and hope that cannot be found anywhere else. We will keep you and your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Wanda and family,
It's been a while since we last spoke at an October Fest. So sorry to hear of Greg's passing. I remember his squinty eyes and nice smile. May God bless and strengthen you, and comfort you with His peace.

“ Very sad to hear this news. We were neighbors & friends for much of my youth. We shared many, many hours of basketball & baseball as well as the ups & downs of school & more. I hope you find some comfort in this passage from the Book of Numbers: 6:24 “May Jehovah bless you+ and safeguard you. 25 May Jehovah make his face shine upon you,+ and may he favor you. 26 May Jehovah lift up his face toward you and grant you peace.”+With Christian love-
