“ *Grief can be so hard, but our special memories can help us to cope along with prayer and supplication to Jehovah.
~~With Sympathy~~*

Mrs. Alexander - November 18, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and share the hope promised in the Bible. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever. When God's will take place on the earth as in the heaven, God's Kingdom will fulfill the promise in this scripture. Jesus, who will be the king of God's Kingdom also promised that "those in the memorial tombs will come out." (John 5:28, 29) and "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." (Psalms 37:29)

“ She was an exceptional neighbor. She was there with hot soup when I was sick and a friendly voice on the other end of the phone. I appreciated her keeping track of my house when I was gone and always there if I needed someone. She is missed.

“ I am so sorry about your loss of your mother. I enjoyed caring for her when she was in Country View. Even after she went home she continued to keep in touch. I will miss not getting a Christmas card from her, she was a terrific lady. God Bless you all.
