“ *I remember him as a good Step Grandfather to my gr.son, Tanner Mahaffey. He was always pleasant and nice to me. He loved cashews! I remember the Christmas I bought him 2 cans of them. He didn't waste time opening a can and offered to share with me. He seemed to be a very generous man and loving father and husband.
Loretta, I am very sorry for your loss. If you read the book I gave you, you will know that you can see him again

“ I cannot attend the services, but will be there in thoughts. I am 3 months older than Howard & Harry. While our Dads (twins,too) shared some farming, we played in the fields during our elementary age. I thought I could do anything they could.
Later in life, Howard & Loretta helped me with the LAW LEGACY book . So did Dale & Terri. Harry, Howard and I were baptized the same day in Aug. 1938 by Ira Y Rice, sr. in the Tavern Creek. Alder Springs Church of Christ.
Loretta and family, I pray for GOD to comfort you thru this trying time.
