“ I was too little to remember a lot of the times that were spent with your your dad, my dad, and our families. I do remember the motorcycles and the family reunions . Seeing Uncle Melvin and Daddy cutting up with your parents and your mom's siblings like a bunch of crazy kids. I recall feelings of belonging and being loved by family.

I also remember a visit to the Eagle Lounge. I don't think I was of legal age, but my goal was just to dance. I did dance a lot, but the best thing about the night was running into my Great-Uncle Ed Grimmett. As always, he said, "you want anything." Even though I said no, soda arrived and I think later there was food.

This memory is so special because it is what the Eagle Lounge was to me--a gathering place for friends, neighbors, and family. My mom and especially my dad allowed me to dance there as a stupid underage teen almost twenty because he said, "JC won't let anybody mess with you."

My prayers and condolences to you all.

“ I genuinely regret your loss. No one better than God, understands the depth of your pain and can help you cope with your disquieting thoughts. Thus, I hope that in due time, your family receive God's peace that excels all thought, so that it will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. God is love and he cares for all his creatures. He is called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. Thus, may the resurrection hope in the new world, where mankind will not be subject to accidents, sickness, and death bring you emotional support; also knowing that Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalm 34:18; John 6:40)
