“ James, "Jimmy" as most of us called him, will be greatly missed by his family, friends and colleagues. We all remember a funny story or his outgoing nature and his vulnerability to help when the need arose. I don't think he ever met a stranger. I have gained much joy, my friend, because your kindness has so often refreshed my heart. Hopefully for the rest of us we can take encouragement and inspiration from that kindness and likewise do the same.

“ I didn't really know James but grew up with his older brothers and sisters. We had lots of fun when we were kids. So sorry to the family for their loss. Rest in peace Jimmy.
