“ Dear Family...So sorry for your loss of your mother and grandmother. With all the agony and pain that this world brings about. YES! What a PRIVILEGE to learn of someone to exceed the expectations of living this life.(Psalms 90:10). She had an extensive legacy and was well reported on. Losing a person as such is not always easy to comprehend because of their impact on the family and their contribution they made to society. . May the Lord give your family the peace that excels all thought and the memories you have of her continue to make you smile. Again ...so sorry for your loss.
