In her youth she was baptized and attended Grassy Creek Baptist Church in Louisiana, Missouri. As an adult she became a member of Noix Creek Baptist Church in Louisiana, Missouri. She worked ten years at Wal-Mart in Louisiana. Prior to that she worked part time at Joe's Jug, Reliable Drugs, and Young's Variety Store. She had a love for being outside under a shade tree, enjoying conversation with her visitors, and sipping a tall glass of sweet iced tea. She was so proud of the many flowers Pops planted just for her, and if you were lucky she would give you a personal guided tour all around the property to show them off. Another pleasure she enjoyed was preparing home cooked meals for her family. Not many people could take just any cut of wild game and turn it into a delicacy like Nana could.
