“ So sorry for your loss...We never know when the time will come that our loved ones will leave us. It is something that you really cannot prepare for. It saddens us to see them go....But the bible hold out promises that we can count on. Jesus said that the hour will come when all will hear his voice and stand once again.(John 5:28, 29). So please continue to look to the Lord and his words for lasting comfort.

“ Ann,

You and the rest of your family are in my prayers. I thank you again for always welcoming me in to your home. You and Jerry always brought a smile to my face when I saw you at shows or even just texted or called.

I am positive that I will again see jerry once I pass on and am in heaven.

“ Ann

My thoughts and prayers are with you at this so very Sad time.

No words can express all that my heart wishes to say to you right now

I will always remember Jerry and his bright wonderful smile and all of the good times that we all had together with the cars. He touched so many lives and I am so glad that I had the honor of meeting him and being able to consider him a friend. You both have meant a lot to me through the years and I will miss him very much.

This is sent to you with Shared tears and thoughts of sending many hugs to you.

“ Ann,
I am so sorry to hear of Jerry's passing. You both are very wonderful people and have been great friends to my parents. Jerry was one of the good guys! Always willing to help and he always had a smile on his face. My parents always enjoyed traveling and showing cars with you. He made quite an impression on all three of my kids as well. Please find comfort in knowing that Jerry is in a better place and I know he is smiling down on all of us now. I will be praying for you.
Sincerely, Randy McCauley
