Having know Joe since High school, He was always a gentleman. My thought and prayers are with you Lillian an Terry and Sherri and to his brother Bob. He loved to talk about his guns and his travels on the motorcycle, he will truly be missed by his family and the community.

“ I first met Joe in 1976 while attending the "Great River Road Tour" motorcycle rally out of Hannibal, Missouri. Despite the 10 year difference in our ages we bonded quickly and developed a great, long lasting friendship. Joe, unknowingly, became the big brother I never had. We rode thousands of miles together and attended countless motorcycle rallies over a period of about 15 years. In time I came to know and love his family who always made me feel welcome in their home. Joe is one of the best men I have had the opportunity to know in my life. I respected, admired and loved him. My prayers and deepest sympathy are with Lillian, Terry and Sherri during this difficult time.
