She retired from her position as the Administrative Assistant to the Director of Nursing at Pike County Memorial Hospital. Judy lived many of her adult years in Clarksville, MO. She was a member of the Ramsey Creek Baptist Church and was a loving and dedicated wife. She enjoyed attending car shows, cooking and gathering her siblings and their families into her home for fantastic food and fun.

She will be remembered for her beautiful smile, her willingness to lend an ear and a helping hand, to pray with and for those in need...reminding them that Jesus would carry them when they didn't have the strength to face life's challenges on their own. She leaves an empty space in the hearts of those who loved her and will be so dearly missed.

“ Aunt Judy, you'll never be forgotten. There aren't enough words to describe how wonderful you were. You loved all your nieces, nephews & grands like your own and made sure we knew and felt it. You were humble, patient and kind to all. You never made a fuss over yourself but always made everyone else feel special and valued. You took time with people, gave everything you could without expecting anything in return, and loved unconditionally. You always had a hug and kiss for everyone, made an awesome coconut cream pie, were a total softie at heart but also a quick wit who could give us the business with the best of them. You gently kept us in line, even in our middle age, for instance if one of us (cough, cough) occasionally muttered a curse word. You would overhear it and help bring us back to Jesus by using the offender's first AND middle name, ha ha. No one ever went hungry with you, and you did so many kind things for others throughout your life in silence or anonymously. If someone tried to acknowledge the deed or repay you, you'd say "Don't take away my blessing" because you gave to help and with an open, loving heart. But you were also a smart cookie, very hard worker and your own lady who stuck to your principles and fought for those you loved. You lived with strength, grace, and bravery. Thank you for everything. Until we meet again.

As you would tell us, love you bunches!
