

Kathryn Marie Steinhage

August 10, 1935 - August 31, 2018

Kathryn Marie Steinhage, 83, died suddenly Friday, August 31, 2018 in Louisiana, MO. Funeral services will be held at 12:00 P.M. on Tuesday, September 4, 2018 at the Collier Funeral Home in Louisiana, MO. The Rev. Ruth Ann Jones officiating. Burial will be at the Eolia Cemetery in Eolia, MO. Visitation will be held Tuesday from 11:00 A.M. until time of service at the funeral home.

Kathryn was born August 10, 1935 in Clarksville, the only child of August William and Verdier Elizabeth (Turner) Steinhage. Her paternal grandparents are August Henrich and Maria Dortha (Brunsworth) Steinhage and her maternal grandparents were Berry Verdier and Dediara Alice (Worledge) Turner, all of Eolia. She never married.

Survivors include five beloved first cousins and numerous second cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles.

She was happily raised on a farm in rural Clarksville, attended Clarksville grade school and Malvern B. Clopton High School with the class of 1955. Kathryn lived at Ruth Jensen Village in Bowling Green for thirty years prior to entering a nursing home.

Kathryn was a unique person who loved to tell stories of her early years, being with family and eating a good meal. Her favorite activities were being outdoors, playing bingo and creating pot holders on her loom. She will be sadly missed by all who knew her.

Memorials may be made to Clarksville Methodist Church or Clopton Alumni Association in care of the funeral home.

“ My dear sweet Kathryn, oh the fun we had when you lived in the house in Louisiana. You took me on an adventure to the cemetery somewhere down in Eolia. We loved going to places together, like Colorfest. I know you are now happy to be with your parents and the rest of your family that you used to speak of.
