

Kay Rottman

August 5, 1942 - August 18, 2024

Myrtle Kay Rottman, age 82, of Louisiana, MO passed away Sunday, August 18, 2024 at her home surrounded by her family.

Kay was born August 5, 1942 in Louisiana, MO, the daughter of Otis Cox and Florence Travis. From the age of 5, she was raised by her mother Florence and step-father Russell Hobkirk and attended Louisiana Schools. When Kay left school, she began working at the glove factory in Louisiana and Camp Togg's garment factory in Clarksville. She met and married William Fredrick Rottman in 1960 and to this union, two children were born. She and Fred started a Western Auto in Louisiana in 1970 and ran it until 1989. Following her time at Western Auto she worked for Dura Automotives until she retired. In her free time, Kay enjoyed boating on the water, working with flowers (especially lilies), family gatherings, and spending her winters in Florida with her friend Betty. She was a Baptist by faith.

Those left to cherish her memory are her son Russell Rottman of Louisiana; grandchildren Jenny Potter (Brent), Justin Rottman (Angie) and Brian Rottman (Christie); great grandchildren Beau and Reese Potter, Austin and Joey Rottman, and William and Wyatt Rottman; sister Patsy Colbert of Bowling Green; nieces, nephews and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her parents and son Billy Rottman.

Cremation rites are under the direction of Collier Funeral Homes in Louisiana and a family led celebration of life will be held at a later date.
