“ Kenny,
This is a tribute to your talent and skills. In 1996, you installed a new, state of the art heat and air conditioner in Rich and Nancy's (my) basement. By yourself, you brought the units, tools & equipment to our basement in St. Louis. By yourself, you set it up where it stands today.
At our recent six-month checkup, the Carrier inspector complemented your excellent installation.
I wanted you to know this; and now you do.

I met Kenny in our 20's as we both enjoyed hang gliding in Colorado. We spent nearly every weekend in the mountains chasing the wind and living the dream. Funny, smart, inventive, trustworthy. You don't find many people like that these days and I will miss him dearly. Fly high my dear friend. - Bruce Decker, Colorado
