My sincerest sympathy and condolences to Kay's Family at this difficult time . I enjoyed working with her at Maple Grove for years . A few weeks back I seen her at PCMH getting a routine blood draw and we talked, I was blessed to have that opportunity. She will be greatly missed by many ... Prayers for her family ..

“ Kay and I worked together from day1 at pcmh. We always laughed. She and Ellen dial lender were my right hand in those days. We had so many memories that made us laugh and she and I just shared a few in the aisle of county market several weeks ago. What a wonderful smile, wit and laugh. Always in my prayers. Know that she'll be missed.
