“ Lynn was such a sweetheart and a very good friend in high school. Her & I went to nearly every teen town/dance in North County and always had a great time. She will especially be missed on FB where so many of us have gotten reacquainted.

Rest in Peace Lynn!

“ Lynn, you were taken way to soon. I only pray that you knew how much you were loved. I hurt so bad right now I wish I could just give you one more hug. I love you and miss you my sister and my friend. Don't worry you're animals will be taken care of. See you on the other side of that bridge.

“ I miss my big sister. Sorry I was always such a pest when we were younger. I know you hated having to drag little sis around with you when you went anywhere. I also know that as we got older, you loved having little sis and all your family around. You were loved by many. Enjoy your peace and stay away from the Apple Pucker. At least save some for me! See you on the other side.

“ I was really saddened to hear of Lynn's passing. She was one of the most kind and genuine people from our class. What I remember of Lynn was her kindness and her ever glowing smile. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and friends.

“ Lynn I still am in shock that you are gone. Your love for everyone and everything in life was amazing. Your strength to deal with the hand you were dealt in life, I don't know many who would have handle it in the manner that you did. I love you so much and I am not ready to say goodbye, it hurt's to much and as you know I am not good at it. I know I will see you again one day! in life you were my Godmother in death you are my guardian angel. A piece of my heart went with you. I love you and miss you! Rest in peace my angel.

“ I was very shocked to her of Lynn's passing. I had just spoke with her earlier in the week and was planning a trip up to see her. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

Lynn faced many struggles for many years and I spent alot of time with her and Jason helping her out in someway. No I hope she and Jason can findly be together and have peace and run the fields of glory together.

Unfortunately do to health reasons I am not able to make it to the services and pray that even though it is a sad event Lynn is now free of pain.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Lynn.

I remember all the fun we had as kids when all the families got together at grandma's (Chickie)house.

From all the comments I've read here and on facebook Lynn was loved greatly by everyone and in the end that's the true measure of a life well lived. I hope the family finds comfort in that.

Although I can't be there, my thoughts and prayers are with you as you get through this difficult day.
