“ Sherry, Randy and families, so very sorry for your loss. I have so many memories growing up & visiting my sister across the street when you (& I) were very young to meeting my future husband in your family's store! Teaching school and seeing who could read the Wall Street Journal before Mr. Henry came it for it! Shared many fun times as well s some tough times, truly a cherished friend!

We have lost a great, dear, Lady!. She always had a smile, a story and a kind word. Although I did not see her as often as I should have, I did call her and we had nice long talks. I remember her from so many years back, at the drug store, church activities and all over town. She will be greatly misses, especially by her two dear children. May the peace of the world, surround you two, guide you and help you as you pass on this lovely soul. After all, none of us are here for ever. Love and Hugs,(Butch),Richard, Cottrell
