“ My deepest sympathy to you in your grief. I remember many wonderful times at the Shellhorse home when I was young. Rhonda and I were born a day or 2 apart and I remember that my Mom and Marilyn were roommates! I do hope you'll be comforted by many wonderful memories and let her legacy live on in you.

“ Marilyn was my 1st employer when I moved to Louisiana. She was so good to me. She explained who was who in the community, as I was newly married & had just moved there. I would see her at Krogers & would stand & visit until our groceries got warm. I loved her. I will always be grateful to her for taking a chance on me. Thank you Marilyn, you sweet Angel.
