“ I remember her sweet smile and coming to my wedding. We had bells for the guests to ring if they wanted my husband and me to kiss. She was leading the pack ringing those bells. I remember her being there for my Dad, her brother, on the day he passed. Aunt Sis you will be missed.

“ MaMa - this picture makes me smile and cry all at the same time. This was the beautiful smile that always greeted me and that I will never forget. I'm forever grateful for the love that you and PaPa shared with me every since I was a little girl. You both hold a special place in my heart and I love you both more than words can describe. While it saddens me to think I can't squeeze you again anytime soon, I'm beyond excited for you that you are finally reunited with PaPa and Chris. I know this smile is brighter than ever.

Karen & family - thank you for sharing this special lady with me and always welcoming me into your family. I love you all to pieces and I pray God's peace and all of your happy memories of MaMa overpower the immediate grief. I'm sending all of my hugs across the distance. You are all in my prayers.

*Love,
Christina*

*"See! I will not forget you. I have carved you on the palm of my hand"
Isaiah 49:15-17*

You and PaPa shared this verse with me on a statue when I was growing up. It has survived all of my moves and still sits in my bedroom today. I now share this back to you. All my love MaMa!

Sweet Mary or MaMa as you were known to us. You loved & babysat my precious Christina from 6 months till she was 2. You, PaPa, Chris & Karen gave her so much love. You & Christina also shared a birthday! I truly cherish your love & time spent together. Prayers for Karen & family at this sad time but rejoice that Jesus is welcoming her home. Love & hugs forever.
