“ I have been searching for the words that can truly express what you mean to me. My friend, my game of thrones buddy, my pick me up when I didn't even know that I needed it. The last thing I said to you just a week before was that I believe in you and that I wanted to make sure you knew it because at that point you were having a little doubt. I hope that you can still feel the love and the care I have for you while you travel forward. I am truly blessed to have known you to have been your friend. You were a beautiful soul and a wonderful man. You helped a lot of people and not everyone would do some of the things you have done to take care of others. It is a generous heart that leaves us here and I hope that I can be in some way as giving and as forgiving as you were.
Thank you Mr Michael. I love you my friend.

From all the way across the border in maple syrup country yeah I know you're snickering at that :) Monique

“ *MT. OLIVE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH
CENTRALIA. MISSOURI 65240
FEBRUARY 16, 2015*

Condolences to the family of Michael Alexander

We, the pastor and members of Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church are extending our heartfelt sympathy to family and friends of Bro. Alexander. We encourage you during this time to pause and remember the many blessing that God allowed you to enjoy together, and to also take courage to face the days ahead with the comfort of knowing that you will meet again in heaven one day. Many people look upon death as a sad occasion, but the death of a Christian is a glorious time, for our Lord and Savior, had said so and the Psalmist in Psalm 116:15 says, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saint."

We are praying for you, may God bless you and give you strength and courage.

*Sympathetically yours,
Pastor George L. Coleman Sr.

“ I literally just found out about your passing about a half hour ago. We spoke that day you passed. I dont know what happened but Im so grateful I got the chance to hear your voice one last time.

My friend, no words can express my grief and loss. I will miss you eternally. You were my sounding board and my support. You have been one of the truest, greatest friends I've ever had. You had my back and believed in me when you didn't even need to. You tried to build me up and never let me give up. Thank you for always being there for me

You were amazing, kind, generous, loving, intelligent, funny. The world lost a truly good man.

I'll never forget you and you will remain in my heart as one of the truest friends I've ever had until the day we meet again

Love always,

“ Michael was my neighbor for several years, and we stayed friends even after he moved. In our conversations I learned how he loved his God, loved his family, and loved his country and the people in it.

I am very sad to lose Michael - he was a good man and I am blessed to have known him. Even though I am very sad he is gone, I know that our Lord will reunite us some day and it will be as if no tears had ever been shed.

See you soon my brother. Tim McNabb

“ I genuinely regret your loss. No one better than God, understands the depth of your pain and can help you cope with your disquieting thoughts. Thus, I hope that in due time, your family receive God’s peace that excels all thought, so that it will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. God is love and he cares for all his creatures. He is called the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation. Consequently, may the resurrection hope in the new world, where mankind will not be subject to accidents, sickness, and death bring you emotional support; also knowing that Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves. (Psalm 34:18; John 6:40)
