“ Richard has been a lifetime friend until I could no longer locate him the past few years. He helped me so much as a ten year old girl playing the organ for Mass and Lenten services, weddings, funerals etc. (I was too short to see over the organ) He spent many hours standing by the console so he could tell me, if communion was over or benediction was coming up. He worked and retired from Hercules and I went away to college & teaching but always ran into each other at Mass and around town. So sorry for his loss, prayers and condolences to his family, especially Florence, who was in high school w/me.
