“ I have known Rick since he started to work at Holcim. He and I were great friends and enjoyed each other's company as we went to meetings. We always looked forward to showing each other pictures of our hunting and fishing escapades and sharing our outdoor experiences. He will be greatly missed by all of us. He was always so kind and had a genuine interest in everyone he knew.

“ A good man who want be forgotten. May you shine as you sit at the right hand of God the Father now, and may God be with your family.

Departing Words....

I am standing on the seashore. A ship spreads its white sails to the morning breeze & starts for the ocean. I stand watching it until it fades on the horizon, & someone at my side says, "He is gone." Gone where? The loss of sight is in me, not in him. Just at the moment when someone says, "He is gone," there are others who are watching his coming. Other voices take up the Joyful shout, "Here He Comes," & that's not dying, just moving to live in a better, more beatiful and perfect place.
