“ Dear Family...So sorry for your loss of your father and grandfather. With all the agony and pain that this world brings about. YES! What a PRIVILEGE to learn of someone to exceed the expectations of living this life.(Psalms 90:10). He had an extensive legacy and was well reported on. Losing a person as such is not always easy to comprehend because of their impact on the family and their contribution they made to society. . May the Lord give your family the peace that excels all thought and the memories you have of him continue to make you smile. Again ...so sorry for your loss.

“ Kathleen & Bill, Natalie & Will I am so sorry for the loss of your dad and granddad, You will live on with lots of memories, Having been raised and knowing R.M. and Pauline all my life he was a gentleman farmer who always did things the old way, which in my mind was the right way. Hugs to all of you, you are in my prayers.
