“ One of my favorite memories is when we piled into the truck to take Edith to the hospital when April was born. We hurried so and then sat visiting and waiting and waiting and visiting. It seemed like forever, but that day formed a forever bond. Many times Cliff, Rosie, John and I visited and some of our children were friends. I always admired her quiet strength and strong integrity. We shared ideas, problems and, best of all, three grandchildren, April, Derek and Sabrina.
