“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'"- John 11:25

“ I want to extend my sympathy to the Kilby family. Sam was an interesting person with whom to communicate. We used to meet on a regular basis at the Trimble House and I recently saw him here in Louisiana and we visited for a few minutes.

My best wishes to the family but know that Sam and his wife are now reunited. D. Randall Cone, Louisiana, MO

“ So very sorry to learn of Sam's passing. Hadn't seen him in a while, but he was always smiling, telling some funny tale. He and Roberta so enjoyed Samantha and Zach's ballgames! My deepest sympathies to Mary Lou, Cindy, Kevin and to your families. I know he will be missed, but he's surely reunited with Roberta in Eternity! May God bring comfort to you all!
