“ Sue always was so joyful and full of love & life. Really enjoy the time with Bonnie last fall.
We won't get to be there Saturday. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Sue was a special friend for many years and we shared many interest over the years.

Sue and Bert were kind enough to ask me to go different places when my husband passed. When teaching in the school where my grand children were going she always made sure they knew when school was called off. The grand children said when I gave them the news how sweet a person she was. The list goes on of the good times we shared and helped each other in the good times and bad times in our lives.

Sue will be greatly missed by so many people as well as myself. I want the whole family to know they are in my prayers and thoughts at this very difficult time. I am sure Sue is in Heaven looking down on all of us and so proud of each of her family and friends.

God Bless to all of You,

“ I don't remember ever seeing Sue without a smile on her face. I loved to hear her laugh.
