“ Fred, We hope you get this message. We haven't been to 54th Street for quite some time and went tonight, only to find out about Thelma. We cannot tell you how terribly sad we feel about Thelma's passing. We'll miss seeing her and her beautiful smile when she talked about you and her family, all of whom she clearly adored. We know only too well of the pain that comes with such a misunderstood death. We wish you and your family only the best and, although we didn't know Thelma well, she struck us as the kind of person who would only want the best for all of you. Our thoughts are with you all.
