“ Sept 1994. I started a new job. I met many wonderful people. Vicki was among them. We went on together over to the new Fulfillment side. I also met Tracy, Sandy and Jessica. I became so fond of this family but especially Vicki. Sometimes I would call her Miss Vicki. When I think back of my time in Louisiana, I told my children about Vicki and her girls. It is such a warm happy memory for me. I was fortunate to be able to speak to Vicki on the telephone before she passed and I am so thankful for that. Vicki, thank you for so many things. Love of God being one. So my tears are not those of sorrow, but happy ones that I know we will meet again in the tomorrow. Love You so much!!!! Joyce Hoaglin Horyczun
