

Wayne Maurice Smiley

October 19, 1939 - September 16, 2016

Wayne Maurice Smiley was born October 19, 1939 in Wynne, Arkansas son of Walter Vance and Helen Rose Smiley. The family included two brothers Byron (deceased), Walter and a sister, Sarah. He has one daughter Cindy Hager Wayne was a Master Musician and Organist. He served as church organist from an early age and taught piano, organ. After beginning his school teaching career in Arkansas he moved to St. Louis where he taught instrumental music in Jefferson County R1 school district for 30 years. Arriving in the City he became the Organist for Centenary Methodist Church where in August 1974 he met and married his wife Jo Anne Ashbaugh, a musician and school teacher. Together they served as Ministers of Music at Centenary, at Salem in Ladue Methodist Church and then at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Alton, IL.

After retirement in 1998 Wayne re-discovered his attraction to Clarksville, MO, rented a building and B. T. Dove Antiques was born. His continuing investments in the town were made with the hope that some part of life here would be better because of the care and service of Jo Anne and Wayne Smiley.

His passion for life caused him to travel, at a moment's notice, far and wide and his love of music and interest in the organ instrument caused him to find and play every organ along the way. He introduced many people to the beauty, power and grandeur of the Mighty Organ and its' music. He was an animal lover evidenced by his constant companion Sunny, a Sun Conure Parrot and Miss Callie, a charming Calico Cat and his kind attention to all animals. Wayne was a story teller with a stellar memory. He loved people and easily made them comfortable while in his presence and privileged to have known him.

Wayne often assisted musical performances throughout St. Louis including accompanying his wife's Ladue School Choral groups. He traveled with the students across the country and abroad, and together husband and wife mentored many young people. He was a terrific husband with his supportive hand firmly on his wife's back during all times, the good and the difficult.

“ Memories abound as I see Wayne's smiling face. The most recent was a few years back when Courtney and I stopped in and surprised you on our way to Columbia. Wayne was so gracious to take us on a house tour and show us his beautiful store.

We will all hang onto those memories and, of course, we have memories dating back 50+ years. That's a long time...

May God hold you in His loving arms as you grieve the loss of your best friend, companion and partner for life.

*We love you!

“ So hard to believe, when you think of all the people he touched over the years, those of us he inspired with his teaching. Anyone can become an educator, it is the special ones like Mr. Smiley who are the real teachers.

A part of him will always live on in those of us lucky enough to call him teacher

“ I am so sorry for your loss. He was truly a wonderful man. One of my favorite memories was from our trip to Boston in 1997 on the way home we stopped at a REALLY interesting castle/home, I forget the name, but they fired up their organ in the great room and Wayne wowed us all with his talent. It feels like it was yesterday. Send every ounce of love humanly possible.
