“ My Father Lowell J Wright was Jrs uncle, I hadn't seen Jr since my Fathers funeral 7 yrs ago. I shared this story on FB earlier of how as a very young man jr came to help our family out in a time of crisis. Circa 1956 I contracted the German measles, as I recovered the rest of my family all came down with the measles and in those days you were told to stay in a dark room or your vision could be affected.

Jr came and stayed in our Grand mother Wright's house near Frankford near our home.

It was my job to go down and wake him up so he could come eat breakfast then He would do the milking of about six or eight cows along with any thing else that need done.

I know as a family his help was greatly appreciated.

“ Playing music with Junior and Bill Jones at Calvary Gospel in Summer Hill was a real treat in the 80's. We always were curious about how eager he was to dig ginsing on our place. We considered him family.

“ Uncle Junior was very talented in playing guitar and singing. He could have been a Country Music Star from the way he could play guitar and sing but he chose to be with his wife and kids , he did not want to be away from them. He was self taught and played instruments by ear . He has a wonderful family that fully supported him. All of his nieces and nephews love him and will never forget him . He will be missed . I am his neice Shirley Frazier . My Love and prayers go out to all of you.

Junior always had a gig lined up for Saturday night. On his home going night he kept a divine appointment. We were all blessed. We are still blessed with his memory. Junior played with Elvis, with Chey Atkin's and his brother.
